

Notes for ECE 39595 - Object-Oriented Programming with C++

Zeke Ulrich

January 13, 2025

Contents

Course Description 1

Introduction 2

Course Description

This course teaches C++ and the principles of object oriented programming. It covers the basics of the C++ language, including inheritance, virtual function calls and the mechanisms that support virtual function calls. Design patterns and general principles of programming will be covered.

Introduction